DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to a semiconductor device, classified in class 257, subclass 66 and wherein:
 - II. Claims 11-23, drawn to a method of making a semiconductor device, classified in class 438, subclass 149.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case unpatentability of the Group I invention would not necessarily imply unpatentability of the Group II invention, since the product of the Group I invention could be made using another and materially different process from that of the Group II invention. For example, as an alternative to claim 11, instead of irradiating the semiconductor film with a laser beam with scanning in a direction, heating the semiconductor film with a heating furnace or rapid thermal annealing apparatus in a direction can be used.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter as shown by their different classification, the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, and separate examination would be required, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

In the event applicant elects Group I, the following election of species requirement is applicable. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I: The embodiment illustrated in figure 9.

Species II: The embodiment illustrated in figure 10.

Species III: The embodiment illustrated in figure 11.

Species IV: The embodiment illustrated in figures 12A-12B.

Species V: The embodiment illustrated in figures 13A-13B.

Species VI: The embodiment illustrated in figures 14A-14C.

Species VII: The embodiment illustrated in figures 15A-15D.

Species VIII: The embodiment illustrated in figures 16A-16D.

Species IX: The embodiment illustrated in figures 17A-17C and 18A-18B.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic to all claims.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
